

Payment Options for Sweet Feet Classes

SESSION – When you sign up paying for a Session, you are paying for the number of classes that are in that particular session. If you miss classes during the session, you are allowed to come to any other class to take a make up. Make up classes can be carried over and will never expire. But, in order to use make up classes, you must be currently enrolled by paying for a Session. If you are signed up with a Class Card or Unlimited Classes, make ups are not allowed. Make ups are only paired with being signed up for a Session. It's your responsibility to keep track of your make ups. If you ever need to check back, previous sign in sheets are saved in the sign in notebook.

CLASS CARD – You can purchase a class card of 6 classes that can be used at your leisure. This is a great option if you know you'll be missing several classes. Class Cards expire after 1 year. You are allowed to carry classes over to the next session, as long as you purchase another Class Card at the beginning of the next session. It's important to look ahead at your schedule to make sure this is the best option for you.

UNLIMITED CLASSES – This method will be charged at the beginning of each month. The cost is $35 per week, so the amount you pay will depend on the number of weeks in that given month. This is a great option (and a great deal) if you plan to take more than 2 classes a week. When you're signed up this way, you can come to as many classes as you want to, every week. You must commit to this payment method a month at a time. If you find it's not working out, you can change your method to a Class Card at the beginning the next month.

PER CLASS – Cash only for this option. $20 for a 75 minute class - $15 for a 45 minute class, and $10 for a 30 minute class.

Sweet Feet now takes credit cards for payments, however, there is an additional charge of 2.75%.
